Kick-start your weekend at 1801 Grille's
"Alive After Five"
Music, Food, Drink and Fun at Foundation Square
Starting Friday, May 26

Columbia, SC.... (May 19, 2017) – 1801 Grille, one of Columbia's newest and best dining destinations, is excited to announce it will host a series of fun, early evening events called "Alive After Five" to be held on Fridays at Foundation Square (Greene and Lincoln Streets), 5pm-8pm.

"Alive After Five is a great way to jump start your weekend with co-workers, friends and family while enjoying live entertainment, food and drink specials and some of the best 'people watching' in the city," says Jefferson Beatty, 1801 Grille's general manager. "Best of all, it's free!"

Beatty said the restaurant will be hosting these events on May 26, June 2 and June 9. Attendees can expect music from local favorites and plenty of food selections from 1801 Grille, including BBQ pork and brisket sliders and beer specials from featured craft breweries. In addition, 1801 Grille's patio and bar, located just steps from Foundation Square, will be open for attendees to indulge in more extensive beverage and food offerings. Complimentary parking is available behind the restaurant on Park Street.

Beatty said, "It's going to be a fun, casual atmosphere. We hope that everyone comes out and experiences all that Columbia has to offer."
